

ST ENDELLION EASTER FESTIVAL

COME AND BLOW

Saturday 31st March 2012

9.45am for 10am start

in the Collegiate Church of St Endelienta
St Endellion, Port Isaac, North Cornwall

Calling all wind and brass players (confident grade 5 and above) –

This is your chance to join with members of the St Endellion Easter Festival wind and brass sections under the baton of our Principal Clarinet, Keith Slade, to create the Endellion Wind orchestra for a day.

The programme will include:

- Mars by Gustave Holst
- Gallimaufry by Guy Woolfenden
- Paris Sketches by Martin Ellerby
- Nimrod by Edward Elgar

Rehearse between 10.00am and 1.00pm, take a short lunch break (light refreshments available in the Church Hall) and then give an informal performance at 2.00pm.

There will be a £5 charge to cover our costs.

For details of how to take part, contact Ian Sandbrook on ian.sandbrook@btinternet.com or 01840 214613.
